Located in the picturesque town of Pinoso, this stunning home offers a rural lifestyle with modern amenities. With an extension that covers three plots with irrigation water, the property is perfect for those looking to enjoy the beauty of the natural environment.

The residence has more than five bedrooms, providing generous space for a large family or for those who wish to have additional rooms for offices, study rooms or guests. The two full bathrooms ensure daily comfort, while the fireplace in the living room adds a cozy and warm touch.

The presence of a well and new pipes ensure a constant supply of water, providing independence and efficiency. The warehouse and garage offer ample storage and parking space, ideal for those with specific projects or needs. The property has been carefully renovated, with a completely renovated roof, ensuring durability and a modern aesthetic. The presence of electricity and water on the property adds additional comfort to this rural home. In short, this house in Pinoso combines rural charm, functionality and modernity, creating a unique and special place to call home.
